Team Lead

About me

Highly energetic and performance driven, are just the main character traits that drive me to improve and strive for perfection in the position that I take. Due to the amount of tasks that were delegated to me, it is crucial for me to stay organized and have a backup plan if there might be difficult situations. And as a fun fact from the age of 4 to 17, I have been a professional ballroom dancer, during this time I have managed to travel the world and represent Moldova and Romania on the international stage, which introduced me to different cultures and made me discover my love for traveling.

Team Lead of Customer Support Managers · KeepUp Systems

December 2023 - September 2024 · 10 months

Team Lead takes interviews of the new candidates and creates a small description of them during the conversation. During that time, we test the candidate on their behavior in different situations to see their compatibility with the job as a support manager. Provide training to the accepted candidates and cultivate the necessary skills for them to be prepared for the position. Lead a team of support managers, providing coaching, mentorship, and guidance to ensure their professional growth and the effectiveness of their teams. Oversee the day-to-day operations of the support department, ensuring timely and effective issue resolution, and adherence to service level agreements. Monitor support performance metrics. Setting up 1-1 meetings with all support managers every quarter of the year to provide a performance evaluation, set up goals for the upcoming quarter, discuss overall physical and mental being of the support manager and discuss potential promotion and what skills need to be improved for the transfer to be completed. Promote ongoing process improvement initiatives to streamline support workflows, boost effectiveness, and elevate customer satisfaction. Handle escalated customer issues and complex cases, demonstrating problem-solving skills and a commitment to customer success. Collaborate with other departments to drive customer-centric improvements and initiatives. Establish and nurture a culture of collaboration, innovation, and accountability within the support managers' team.

Passing updates/information from different departments to our support managers, and having us send back questions that can potentially be asked by our clients or provide with cases that
